

Corporate Code of Conduct

Ethical Principles, Compliance Mandates & Professional Standards | Document ID: HR-COC-2026-V1

1. Ethical Foundations & Compliance Guidelines

The Corporate Code of Conduct serves as the ethical compass directing our daily operations, strategic initiatives, and professional interactions. Every employee, director, and representative is held to the highest standards of integrity, transparency, and accountability. We strictly operate in compliance with the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA), global anti-bribery statutes, and fair competition regulations. This framework guides our interactions with clients, vendors, regulators, and the community at large.

2. Conflict of Interest Declarations

2.1 External Employment & Moonlighting Restrictions

Employees must avoid any situation where personal interests conflict, or appear to conflict, with the interests of the Company. External employment ("moonlighting") is strictly prohibited if it involves competing entities, utilizes corporate time/resources, or impairs the employee's core performance. Any external board memberships or substantial financial investments in vendor/competitor firms must be formally disclosed to and approved by the Legal and Compliance Department.

2.2 Gifts, Entertainment, and Corporate Hospitality Rules

Employees may not accept, offer, or solicit gifts, favors, entertainment, or hospitality that could influence, or appear to influence, professional judgment. The Company enforces a clear monetary threshold and categorical exclusions:

Permissible Nominal Threshold: Only nominal, promotional tokens (e.g., branded pens, notebooks) valued under $50 USD are permissible without disclosure.

Categorically Prohibited Items: Cash, cash equivalents (gift cards), lavish meals, or paid travel accommodations from active vendors or prospects are strictly banned.

3. Workplace Harassment & Zero-Tolerance Measures

The Company enforces a zero-tolerance policy against any form of harassment, including sexual harassment, bullying, microaggressions, or hostile work environment creation. Sexual harassment includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature that conditions employment or creates an intimidating atmosphere. Violations will result in immediate termination, with potential legal referral if statutory definitions are violated.

4. Whistleblower Protections & Anonymous Safe Reporting

Employees are duty-bound to report known or suspected violations of law, regulations, or this Code. The Company provides an anonymous Compliance Hotline managed by an independent third party, operating 24/7/365.

Non-Retaliation Guarantee: The Company strictly prohibits retaliation, harassment, or adverse employment action of any kind against an employee who reports a suspected violation in good faith. Any supervisor found retaliating will face immediate dismissal.

Investigations will be conducted thoroughly, objectively, and confidentially by the Internal Audit and Compliance team.

Corporate Acknowledgement & Attestation Statement

Every employee must log into their HRIS dashboard within fourteen (14) calendar days of onboarding to formally sign and date the acknowledgement ledger for these corporate policies. Failure to review and attest to these policies constitutes a compliance violation and may subject the employee to the progressive discipline framework.
